

Uniform Guide

Rationale for Uniform

School uniform plays a key role in promoting self-confidence, pride and a feeling of belonging to a community. Wearing a uniform removes additional pressure, and reduces the stress of deciding what to wear in comparison to peers, hence supporting wellbeing. This brings equality to the students regardless of parental wealth.

Acceptable Adjustments

To support our students and parents at JWA in light of the current 'cost-of-living crisis', we have agreed to some acceptable adjustments to the Delta Academies Trust uniform. The high standards of the Trust are still expected to be followed.

It is acceptable to wear pump style shoes with small lace bows, but not ones which contain embellishments, decorative bows, or designer brands.

It is acceptable to wear straight black trousers without the Delta logo, but students are responsible to ensure their ankles are not showing. Leggings, jeans, or similar are not permitted.
