

KS3

JWA Literacy Newsletter

December 2023

★ 1,228 books were borrowed from the library in November ★

READING ROUTES

Years Y7-Y9 are part of 'Reading Routes' journey.

- Each term they will start a new leg of the journey which will be based around a specific genre
- Each different leg will have 6 book titles to choose from
- When they have finished, they will complete a quiz. The more they read, the more prizes and rewards they'll earn!

RECOMMENDED READS

Scavengers by Darren Simpson

The book is about a boy called Landfill who's lived his whole life as a scavenger. He was found as a baby and raised by an old man, Babagoo. The story follows Landfill as he makes a friend with an 'outsider'. Landfill is very unsure of this friendship as he has never experienced anything like it.

The Haunting of Aveline Jones by Phil Hicke

Aveline Jones is a big fan of ghost stories and just can't get enough of them. When she is sent to stay with her Aunt Lillian in a dreary, creepy town called Malmouth over half term she thinks things are going to be boring, that is until she discovers a creepy old book.

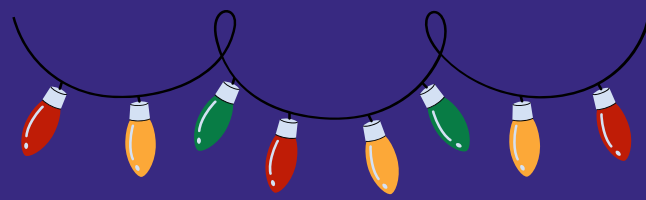

What not to do if you turn invisible by Ross Welford

When one day the invisibility fails to wear off, Ethel is thrown into a nightmare of lies and deception as she struggles to keep herself safe, to find the remedy that will make her seen again – and solve the mystery of her own birth...

KS3

JWA Literacy Newsletter

Drop Everything And Read

- Once a week all students will take part in Drop Everything And Read. This means regardless of their subject they will all focus on a non-fiction text depending on the focus for that week. This will widen their world view and create opportunities for discussion and reflection.
- Next term topics include; World Braille Day, Mental Health, Holocaust Memorial Day and British Values.

Word Of The Week

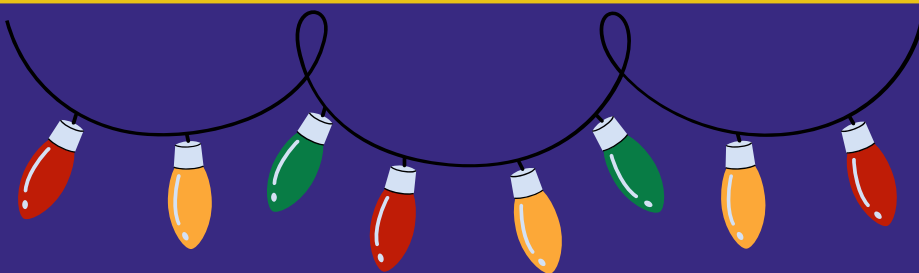

Words next term include:
didactic, pensive, fervour,
austere

7 Deadly Sins Campaign

This month we are focusing on;

Their/ There/ They're

"A student who reads is a student who succeeds".

